

NCHS Board of Director's Meeting, June 7, 2011

Board members present: Tom Redwine, John Young, Jan Bowyer, Pamela Prange, Sarah La Mance, David Albright, Dan Dietz, Martha Ann Parks, Barbara Tumperi, Bette Hickman, and Pam Mayer

Caroline Abbey from the NCTC gave an overview of the plans for creating a play from Margaret Anne Barnes book "Murder in Coweta County", with matching funds needed to present the play, and asking for support from the NCHS for historical information.

ctabbey@charter.net where she can be reached

Pamela called the meeting to order.

Minutes of previous meeting were reviewed with corrections in the facilities committee of taking Bill Headley off the committee and adding Martha Ann Parks.

Correction of spelling of Jane Duenckel for the social committee, minutes accepted as corrected.

Financial report will be given at next meeting Laurie is out of town.

Jan Bowyer gave a report of the meeting where she presented an overview of the Sesquicentennial to the Kiwanis Club, discussion about whether it would remain a separate entity or be a committee of the NCHS, attached is the presentation.

It was determined that Jan would give her presentation to the Board at the next meeting.

Tom Redwine presented historical markers with painted surface a 20 year warranty, Martha Ann moved to accept the new markers.

Barbara Tumperi presented the update on the city art project, the fiberglass horses that would be placed downtown Newnan, colts $1800, horses, $3000 could be auctioned off in the future after they have been on display.

Pam Mayer said social networking sight up and running on facebook Newnan-Coweta Historical Society

Meeting adjourned,
Respectively submitted,
Charlotte Whitlock (member note taker)